

Załącznik nr 1 do Uchwały nr 979 Senatu UZ z 31.01.2024 r.

Scope of learning outcomes for the field of Political Studies - second-cycle studies of general academic profile

The work on the educational results for the field of Political Studies - second-cycle studies, general-academic profile - took into account the learning outcomes for qualifications at level 7 of the Polish Qualification Framework, in accordance with the specific nature of the proposed field of study¹.

Code for the learning outcomes	Learning outcomes for the field of international political relations first-cycle studies	Code of the PRK performance description component - level 7
1	2	3
Knowledge: the graduate knows and understands
KPS_W01	in-depth knowledge of political science, the systemic principles of the state and law, different types of structures of political, cultural, economic, and legal institutions including customary law as well as the principles of contemporary democratic states, particularly in the fields of political communication, political theory, and theory of parties and party systems	P7S_WG-01
KPS_W02	in-depth knowledge of international relations, the rules and principles of international order, particularly with regard to international security and international organizations	P7S_WG-01
KPS_W03	in-depth the major explanatory orientations, positions, and theories in the disciplines of political science and administration and international relations with respect to international political relations	P7S_WG-01
KPS_W04	the major developments in political science and administration and international relations	P7S_WG-01
KPS_W05	the fundamental dilemmas of contemporary civilization in the context of political international relations	P7S_WK-02.1
KPS_W06	the economic and legal conditions of academic and expert activity including the rules of industrial property and copyright	P7S_WK-02.2
KPS_W07	the essential rules of various types of organization, management, and broadly understood entrepreneurship	P7S_WK-02.3

¹ Annex to the Regulation of the Minister of Science and Higher Education of 14 November 2018 on the characteristics of the second level of the Polish Qualification Framework typical for qualifications obtained in higher education after obtaining a full qualification at level 4 - levels 6-8 (Journal of Laws 2018, item 2153).

Skills: the graduate is able to
W – use of knowledge – problems solved and tasks performed
KPS_U01	formulate and solve complex and unusual problems that occur in a polyarchic international environment and innovatively perform tasks in unpredictable conditions	P7S_UW-03
KPS_U02	properly select sources and information derived from them, to conduct research and expert opinions	P7S_UW-03
KPS_U03	assess and critically analyze and synthesize information	P7S_UW-03
KPS_U04	discover the relations between the past and contemporary social processes and identify the relations between these relations	P7S_UW-03
KPS_U05	adapt existing or develop new methods and tools	P7S_UW-03
KPS_U06	use specialized knowledge to organize professional activities	P7S_UW-03
KPS_U07	formulate and test hypotheses regarding simple research problems	P7S_UW-03
K – communication - reception and production of speech, dissemination of knowledge in the scientific community, and foreign language skills
KPS_U06	use a foreign language at the B2+ level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, as well as specialized terminology with particular emphasis on issues in the sciences of politics and administration and international relations	P7S_UK-04.3
KPS_U07	communicate on specialized topics with diverse audiences in the field of political science and administration and international relations, especially in the area of international political relations	P7S_UK-04.1
KPS_U08	debate and chair a debate	P7S_UK-04.2
O – work organization planning and teamwork
KPS_U09	plan and organize their own work	P7S_UO-05.1
KPS_U10	interact with others as part of teamwork	P7S_UO-05.2
U – learning – planning the graduate's own development and the development of others
KPS_U11	independently plan and implement the training of their lifelong learning competencies	P7S_UU-06
Social skills: the graduate is ready to

KK – assessments – a critical approach
KPS_K01	critically evaluate the knowledge they have and the content they receive	P7S_KK-O7.1
KPS_K02	recognize the importance of knowledge in solving cognitive and practical problems and consult experts when having difficulty solving problems on their own	P7S_KK-O7.2
KPS_K03	learn new ideas and change opinions in light of available data and arguments	P7S_KK-O7.2
KO – responsibility – fulfilling social obligations and acting for the public interest
KPS_K04	fulfill social obligations, inspire activities for the social environment, including providing the public with reliable information and opinions on politics and international relations	P7S_KO-O8.1
KPS_K05	initiate action for the public interest in the implementation of projects and tasks related to political science and administration and international relations	P7S_KO-O8.2
KPS_K06	independently initiate and undertake simple research activities	P7S_KO-O8.3
KPS_K07	creatively analyze new situations and problems and independently formulate proposals for their solution	P7S_KO-O8.3
KR – professional role – independence and development of the ethos
KPS_K08	observe the principles of professional ethics in research and expert activities, including the principles of respect for intellectual property, legal order, social order, ethos of the profession, including the dignity of individuals and parties in international relations, also participants in the research process (respondents, informants, interviewees, representatives of institutions and other participants in the process)	P7S_KR-O9